For several days talk of peace has been coming out of Austria it being desired by Berlin politicoians to give the impression that the entente is or has been secretly negotiating for peace. The publication of the Austrian Emperor's letter is expected to squeich the propaganda, though the best damper on any peace talk is the distressing situation on the western front. To all Washington it seems clear that there never will be peace while the armies of Democracy are at a disadvantage. There will be peace only when the futility of what Germany is now do-ing in utter disregard of human life gain selfish objects is fully dem-strated not merely to the outside onstrated not merely to the outside world but to the people of Germany
